

Observation of Gandhi Jayanti Progati College, Agomani

Date: 02.10.2023

The Progati College, Agomani has celebrated 2nd October which is M.K. Gandhis' Birth Day and it is considered very important for the new generation to get information of Indian Independence in which students, teachers and guests have participated. The programme has been presided over by Mr. Ganesh Chandra Saha Co-ordinator of IQAC and several teachers and students deliver their speeches on Gandhiji's lifelong activities relating to National Independence, his moral views, his idealism, his advices to Indian citizens, his thought and philosophy and his policy of Non-Violence etc.

The 2nd October is observed every year as Gandhi Jayanti and International Day of Truth. As per schedule displayed in the programme the celebration has been successfully done auspiciously as it is regarded a holy day by the Indian people.

The programme comes to close with speech of the president and vote of thanks to the organizers and participants.

After the completion of the programme the college serves light food to all participants.
